A MERRY ZOO CHRISTMAS

Llamas and alpacas were popular with guests and received many handfuls of hay from adults and children alike.

Visitors have a chance to experience the Nativity

Those familiar with the story of Jesus's birth know that he was born in a stable in the company of animals, and Two by Two Petting Zoo offered families a chance to experience many of those animals firsthand with its annual Christmas open house Dec. 21. The petting zoo opened its doors at 6 p.m. and allowed families free entry in the spirit of the season. Guests were given the chance to visit with a variety of animals, including the traditional farm staples and other more exotic critters, such as tropical birds and even monkeys. 2017: Year in Review

Dramatic moments unfold in early fall

July ■ August ■ September

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is part three of a four-part series on events that occurred around Coffee County in 2017.

EHS JROTC receives award check from Laulima

BY LEAH LANCASTER
llancaster@eprisenow.com

Enterprise High School's JROTC program was awarded a $2,500 donation check from Laulima Government Solutions on Dec. 19. The donation comes as part of Laulima's dedication to community support said Dan Wise, site manager of the United States Army Air Medical Research Lab at Fort Rucker. "Essentially we want to give to the communities where we have employees working," Wise said. "The company primarily provides contract support to organizations in the military, and the USAAMRL is the linkage for us here. At least three of our employees are parents here at this school — in fact, one of them is in the JROTC program, so the donation benefits her directly." EHS Principal Brent Harrison and the JROTC program are both grateful for the generous donation.
