D&A Mattress, Inc. Files for Chapter 11 Reorganization; Stores Remain Open and Serving Customers

EL PASO, Texas (November 2, 2026) – D&A Mattress, Inc. (the "Company"), the locally owned operator of 15 retail mattress stores in El Paso, Texas and Las Cruces, New Mexico, today filed a voluntary petition for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas, El Paso Division. The Company's stores remain open for business, and customers will continue to be served as usual.

The Company has served the El Paso and Las Cruces communities for close to 30 years. Like many retailers, the Company has been affected by current economic conditions, including tariffs, rising costs and other pressures, which have affected its sales and its ability to service its obligations. The Chapter 11 process gives the Company the time and legal protection it needs to restructure those obligations, strengthen its business and continue serving customers and employees.

"Our stores, our employees and our customers are the heart of this business, and nothing about that changes today," said Daniel Longoria, President of D&A Mattress, Inc. "This filing is a tool to put the Company on a firmer footing. We expect to keep our stores open, keep taking care of our customers, and work constructively with our lenders, landlords, suppliers and other partners to build a stronger company."

The Company expects to continue normal store operations, including sales, deliveries and service. The Company shall seek authority from the Bankruptcy Court to continue honoring customer deposits, returns and exchanges, and related customer programs in the ordinary course. Product warranties provided by manufacturers are not affected by the filing. Customers with questions may contact their local store or the Company.

The Company has asked the Court for authority to continue paying employee wages and benefits in the ordinary course, and it intends to pay for goods and services delivered after today's filing in the ordinary course, subject to Court orders. The Company is asking suppliers, landlords and other business partners for their continued support.

The Company is represented in the Chapter 11 case by Haselden Farrow, PLLC.

Court filings and other information about the case may be obtained from the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court or through the Court's electronic docket (PACER) under Case No.26-31531 and from the Company's counsel at 832-819-1149 or mhaselden@haseldenfarrow.com.
