

In Loving Memory of

Arnim Sinclair Smith

Dec. 4th, 1926 – Dec. 14th, 2025

Arnim Sinclair Smith passed away peacefully at his home in Scarborough, Ontario, on December 14, 2025, just ten days after celebrating his 99th birthday. The impact of his life—on his family, his community, and all who knew him—remains immeasurable.

Born in Trinidad to Oliver Smith and Carmen Bassarath, Arnim was one of six children. From humble beginnings, he demonstrated a natural drive, discipline and work ethic that would define his life and career.

Arnim rose through the ranks to become Transport Manager for the Water and Sewerage Authority (WASA) of Trinidad and Tobago, a respected and prestigious role he carried out with integrity, diligence, and pride. Following his retirement, he and his wife relocated to Canada, where he devoted himself fully to his family, his faith, and his church.

He lived as a testament to his deeply held Christian beliefs. To his family, he was a pillar of wisdom, a source of constant encouragement, and a devoted patriarch.

A faithful steward in all things relationships, responsibilities, and resources, Arnim treated every aspect of his life as a gift entrusted to him by God.

He was predeceased by his beloved wife, Monica; his siblings Sylvia, Veronica, Bertie and Austin; and his grandson, Nigel Mohammed.

Arnim's memory will be cherished by those who survive him: his brother, Wilbert Smith; his six children—Lynette Mohammed (New York), Jeremy Smith (Sherry), Vinora Ann Mohan, Marlyne Sinanansingh, Cheryl Rochemont, and Mervyn Smith; his twelve grandchildren—Nisha (John), Anisa, Alanna, Jason (Leann), Salisha (Marc), Justin (Laiyee), Janelle (Jeremy), Jonathan, Ryan (Anjana), Selena, Richard, and Darryl (Glendy); and his nineteen great-grandchildren, each of whom carries a part of his spirit and legacy forward.
