Five years have passed since we said goodbye,
Yet your absence is felt more deeply with each passing day.

The love you gave and the memories we shared remain forever in our hearts.

We hold those memories close and find comfort in knowing that you touched us in ways that will never be forgotten.

Forever loved, forever missed, and forever remembered.

Rest peacefully.
