

November 8th 1943 – November 21st 2025

The Family of

Kamla Pamela Ramlakhan

of Plaisance Village, Pointe-a-Pierre, regrets to inform Relatives, Villagers, BVS Family, Students and many Friends of her sudden passing. She was the beloved Daughter of Late Ramlakhan and Phoolasarie Suckrit. She was the Sister of Harry 'Titi' (dec), Ganpat 'Morne' (dec), Gangadai 'Tita', Krishna, Elaine 'Neerja', Linda 'Budun' (dec), Jaiharri 'Jai', Jaisiree 'Tull' (dec), Satnarine, Pooran (dec), Rajendra, Tensing, Marilyn and Suzie. She was also the Sister-in-Law of Ten. To her many nephews, nieces and students she was a loving Aunt and Mentor.

She was a past student of St Joseph's Convent (San Fernando), graduate of the UWI (Mona), Kendriya Hindi Sansthan (India), NIHERST, Bharatiya Vidya Sansthaan (BVS), and Exemplary Disciple of Prof. H.S. Adesh (Guruji). She was a respected teacher at St Benedict's College and Lakshmi Girls' College. She was Principal of JJV and SV Couva Centres of BVS and was a livewire at BVS Annual Cultural Training Camps. She conducted Indian Cultural Camps in Jamaica and Trinidad through NCIC and Hindu Prachaar Kendra. She authored 'Smaran' (Compilation of Bhajans), 'Hindi Prabhaat', Parts 1, 2 & 3, as well as a children's motivational book 'Traditional Stories Just for You'.

For her sterling contribution to society, she received the prestigious World Hindi Award (Vishwa Hindi Samman (India) 2015), and others from Indian High Commission (POS), Ministry of Community Development, Culture, Women's Affairs, National Council for Indian Culture (NCIC), Hindi Nidhi, Network of Non-Governmental Organizations and BVS. Kamla loved table tennis and won Full Colour awards, Sports Personality of the term and Runner-Up Sports Woman of the Year at UWI Mona. She was a Relative of the Debideens, Parasrams, Ganeshs, Sankars, Kunjbeharrys and many others.

We express our deepest gratitude to Prof Vijay Naraynsingh, Dr Visham Bhagaloo, Dr Manda Mahabir, and nurses at SFGH and Southern Medical, for their tireless care, assistance and support.

The funeral will be at 9:00am on Friday 28th November, 2025 at Dass Funeral Home, Chaguanas, with Cremation at Waterloo Cremation Site. The proceedings will be livestreamed via:

Funeral Service- 9:00am

https://youtube.com/live/vabu3P__rj0?feature=share/

Cremation Service- Follows the Funeral

<https://youtube.com/live/5bmz-ABgbL8?feature=share/>

Her enthusiasm for life, eternal optimism and friendly nature will live on in our memories.
Her passion for teaching Hindi, Sanskrit, Music, and Dharma, will continue to inspire and motivate us.