Roshan
BABOOLAL

JUNE 1965 - OCTOBER 2024

Though a year has gone by since Roshan's passing, his spirit still lives within the values he upheld and the wisdom he gave so freely. He possessed an unrelenting desire to learn, always pushing boundaries and questioning with fearless curiosity. Whether in the company of leaders or everyday people, Roshan met everyone with equal respect and humility, never afraid to engage, always eager to understand.

His kindness, generosity, and quiet strength laid foundations that endure. Roshan's legacy is one of courage, humility, and an unquenchable thirst for knowledge, an example and inspiration we carry forward with gratitude.

Forever remembered with love, one year on.
