Happy Birthday dearest Guardian Angel in Heaven

Our loving mother came into this world with a strength and light that never wavered. Mom was strong in spirit, beautiful in presence, and brilliant in mind.

Her life was a testament to worship, resilience, grace, and unwavering love.

Mom embodied kindness and generosity. She gave freely of her time, her wisdom, and her heart. Whether offering encouragement, a warm meal, or a listening ear, she made everyone feel seen, valued, and cared for.

As a school teacher and mentor, mom taught with tenacity and passion. Education was not just her profession — it was her calling. She believed deeply in the potential of her students and worked tirelessly to nurture their confidence and curiosity. Her influence continues in the many lives she shaped and inspired.

Mom loved to sing, filling our home with warmth and joy.

Her voice carried comfort and celebration, a reflection of her beautiful spirit.

At home, her love flourished in countless ways. Mom was a wonderful cook and spectacular baker, her delicious cassava pone and Christmas fruitcake were enjoyed by many. No one left our home without enjoying a home-cooked meal.

In her garden, mom tended her plants with patience and devotion.

Her carnations, especially, thrived under her gentle, attentive care — much like the people in her life. She nurtured everything she touched.

Mom's spirituality, strength, brilliance, kindness, and fierce love created a legacy that will endure. Though she is no longer physically with us, the seeds she planted — in hearts, minds, and gardens — continue to bloom.

Mom is forever remembered with deep love, gratitude, and honor.

Missing you ever so deeply with each passing day.

Lots of love and blessings,
Gerry, Steve, Babes, Joe, Rich, and grandchildren
