Where Your Love Still Lives

Mom, I still hear your laughter
in the quiet air,
Soft as sunlight dancing through a whispered prayer.

Your love lingers gently in all I do,
A constant reminder I still belong to you.

The world feels different with you so far away,
Yet I carry your warmth with me every day.
In every kindness, in each small grace,
I catch a glimpse of your beautiful face.

Heaven must glow brighter since you arrived,
Wrapped in the love you always gave in life.
I imagine you smiling, peaceful and free,
Still watching over, still loving me.

I miss your voice, your comforting embrace,
The simple joy of seeing your face.
But in my heart, you've never gone,
Your spirit lives, forever strong.

Until we meet where the angels sing,
I'll hold you close in everything.

We Love You and Miss You Mom, Always and Forever
