

ALL-COUNTY GIRLS BASKETBALL

Player of the Year ALANNA TATE

URBANA SENIOR GUARD

■ All-around player whose ability to attack the basket, crash the boards, kick out passes to shooters and create turnovers helped the Hawks win the Class 4A West region title. She turned in a typically dominant performance in the regional championship game, finishing with 16 points, 12 rebounds and seven assists to help Urbana knock off mighty Clarksburg.

■ She ranked in the top five of Frederick County's scoring, rebounding and assist leaders lists. Averaged 13.8 points, 9.4 rebounds, 3.6 assists and 3.0 steals a game.

■ Had 11 double-doubles despite often being the focus of opposing defenses. She could also nail 3-pointers, although there was often little need for her to do so on a team that had other perimeter threats.

FIRST TEAM

ABBY ALBERTSON SENIOR FORWARD WALKERSVILLE

■ Despite being a double-team magnet, she was a force in the paint, piling up 13 double-doubles in the regular season. Was Frederick County's rebounds leader with 11.5 a game. Also averaged 10.9 points and 1.5 steals a game.

SKAI BAYLESS JUNIOR GUARD OAKDALE

■ Multi-faceted weapon who helped the Bears win a Class 3A West region title. Averaged a team-high 9.2 points, ranked second in the county in assists with 5.6 a game and set a single-season team mark with 111 steals (4.4 a game). Also had 3.9 rebounds a game.

TRYSTEN COLBURN JUNIOR GUARD LINGANORE

■ She was the leading scorer for a powerful Linganore team that had a county-best 21-4 record and won the CMC championship. Averaged 13.4 points, 4.0 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.6 steals a game.

SYDNEY HUSKEY JUNIOR GUARD FREDERICK

■ Most, if not all, opposing defenses focused on containing Huskey, whose ability to run the floor and drive helped her lead the county in scoring with 22 points per game. Scoring wasn't her only asset. She averaged 7 rebounds, 5 steals and 3 assists a game.

TRINITY LINDBLADE JUNIOR GUARD LINGANORE

■ Her ability to run the point, hit 3s and defend tough opponents helped the Lancers win the CMC Spires title and CMC championship game. Averaged 11.8 points and 3.2 assists a game. Finished with 67 3-pointers, including several at crucial moments.

CASSIDY MAHANAY SENIOR GUARD URBANA

■ Transfer from Holy Cross who made an immediate impact during her first year playing in Frederick County. Ranked among the county's scoring leaders with 13.5 points a game. Also averaged 3.6 rebounds and often guarded the opponent's best player.

RILEY NELSON SENIOR GUARD MIDDLETOWN

■ Led Frederick County in assists for the second straight season with 6.4 a game. Also averaged 8.3 points, 5.5 rebounds and a team-high 4.3 steals a game. Helped Middletown win 10 of its final 11 and hand Williamsport its only regular-season loss.

TAYLOR SMITH SOPHOMORE GUARD CATOCTIN

■ The motor for a Catoctin team that once again ranked as one of the county's best. Averaged team highs of 11.8 points and 4.5 assists a game. Also had 5.6 rebounds and 3.0 steals a game.

Purdue's Edey named AP men's player of the year

By JOHN MARSHALL

AP Basketball Writer

Zach Edey spent the days following Purdue's historic NCAA tournament loss lying low, his phone turned off, along with the rest of the outside world.

The disappointing finish did little to diminish the season the Boilermakers big man had.

Dominating at both ends of the floor during the regular season, Edey was a near-unanimous choice as The Associated Press men's college basketball player of the year. Edey received all but one vote from a 58-person media panel, with Indiana's Trayce Jackson-Davis getting the other.

"The season ended in disappointment, which really sucks, but it's always nice to win individual accolades," Edey said. "It kind of validates your work a little bit."

That ending came in the NCAA tournament's first round, when Purdue lost to Fairleigh Dickinson, joining Virginia in 2018 as the only No. 1 seeds to lose to a No. 16.

Before that, Edey dominated. The 7-foot-4 Canadian was named a unanimous AP All-American and the Big Ten player of the year after finishing sixth nationally in scoring (22.3), second in rebounding (12.8) and first in double-doubles (26).

Edey also shot 62 percent from the floor and averaged 2.1 blocked shots per game while leading Purdue to its first outright Big Ten regular-season title since 2017. He is the first player since Navy's David Robinson in 1985-86 to have at least 750 points, 450 rebounds and 50 blocked shots in a season.
