ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Each week during the three sports seasons, the News-Post will honor a boys and girls Athlete of the Week and mention others who were in consideration from the previous seven days of action.

(April 5-11)

BOYS

Josh Skowronski, St. John's Catholic Prep baseball

The senior delivered a seventh-inning grand slam to send the Vikings past Miller School of Albermarle 8-5 on Tuesday in the Forest Acres Classic in South Carolina. He had three hits and five RBIs in the game. In a 10-3 win last Wednesday against Severn School, he had a solo shot among his three hits, driving in a pair of runs.

GIRLS

Ellery Bowman, Middletown girls lacrosse

The Knights senior notched her 200th career point Tuesday on a night when she scored five goals in a 21-7 rout of Catoctin. She contributed five goals and two assists in last Thursday's 13-7 win over Linganore.

SHOUT OUTS

— Middletown baseball's Tyler Haupt threw a no-hitter to beat Williamsport 8-0 last Wednesday. He walked two with six strikeouts, plus had two hits and an RBI at the plate.

— Urbana baseball's Keegan Johnson swatted three triples among four hits and also twirled a complete-game two-hitter with 11 strikeouts last Wednesday in defeating Linganore 12-2 in six innings.

— Tuscarora softball's Avery Neuman fanned all nine batters she faced last Wednesday in a 5-4 loss to North Hagerstown. She also had two hits, including a double. On Monday, in a 3-2 loss to Linganore, she went 4-for-4 with a double and tossed a complete-game four-hitter with eight strikeouts and zero earned runs.

— Linganore boys lacrosse goalie Jackson Curtis made nine saves in a tight 4-3 win over Middletown last Thursday.

— Catoctin boys lacrosse's Jameson Doll collected five goals and two assists in a 17-4 win last Thursday over Boonsboro.

— Catoctin girls lacrosse's Lauren Kelly piled up seven goals with three draw controls as the Cougars topped Boonsboro 13-9 last Thursday.

— Frederick girls lacrosse's Nicole Sibold got her 100th career point, finishing with four goals and one assist, as the Cadets rolled past Thomas Johnson 14-3 last Thursday.

— A nine-point outing from Allison Finley paced Oakdale girls lacrosse in a 20-11 win over Tuscarora last Thursday. She had seven goals and two assists.

— Catoctin baseball's Peyton Castellow went the distance in a 6-2 win over Walkersville last Thursday, allowing two runs on six hits with eight strikeouts.

— Linganore softball's Camryn MacKay went deep twice in a 13-1, five-inning pasting of South Hagerstown last Thursday. She added a double and drove in four runs. On Monday, she threw a complete-game, allowing two runs (none earned) on six hits with six strikeouts to beat Tuscarora 3-2.

— Catoctin's Taylor Smith recorded a four-hit shutout of previously unbeaten Walkersville last Thursday, registering 12 strikeouts — including the final four batters she faced — in a 1-0 win. She then went the distance Monday in a 5-3 win over Williamsport, allowing four hits and fanning 10.

— Middletown girls lacrosse goalie Helen Bartman produced timely and difficult saves throughout the Knights' 13-7 win against Linganore, finishing with 12 in all, last Thursday.
