

CONE HEALTH: A TIMELINE

1895 - Moses H. Cone and his brother Ceasar build their first denim manufacturing plant in Greensboro, which was later called Cone Mills.

1911 - Bertha Cone establishes a trust fund to build a hospital as a memorial to her husband

Moses who died in 1908.

1953 - The Moses H. Cone Memorial Hospital opens to the public with 231 employees and 53 of the 310 beds in service with costs of $8 to $20 per day. The first patient, a toddler, is admitted with a respiratory infection.

1960-1962 - Moses Cone Hospital expands, opening a fifth and sixth floor and North Carolina's first intensive care unit.

Moses Cone 1972, News & Record

1974 - Another expansion at Moses Cone Hospital adds a radiology department, emergency department and more hospital beds.

1990 - The Women's Hospital of Greensboro opens as North Carolina's first free-standing hospital dedicated solely to women and newborns. It is later renamed Women's Hospital.

1995 - Moses Cone Hospital and The Women's Hospital of Greensboro become Moses Cone Health System.

1997 - Wesley Long Hospital joins the Moses Cone Health System. The Moses Cone-Wesley Long Community Health Foundation is created and is later renamed the Cone Health Foundation.

1999 - One of Greensboro's oldest and largest private physician groups, LeBauer HealthCare, joins the Moses Cone Health System.

2000 - The 80-bed Behavioral Health Center opens. It's later renamed Behavioral Health Hospital.

2001 - Annie Penn Hospital in Reidsville joins the Moses Cone Health System.

2002 - The Moses Cone Health System Regional Cancer Center opens at Wesley Long Hospital. Today, it is called the Cone Health Cancer Center.

2010 - Triad HealthCare Network was established and became a Medicare accountable care organization in 2012.

2011 - Moses Cone Health System is re-branded as Cone Health.

2012 - Cone Health Medical Group is formed with more than 400 physicians in the Triad area.

2013 - Alamance Regional Medical Center officially becomes part of Cone Health.

2020 - Women's Hospital closes and maternity and specialty obstetrics care move to the Women's & Children's Center at Moses Cone Hospital.

April 13, 2020 - Cone starts moving COVID-19 hospital patients to Cone's Green Valley campus in Greensboro, formerly the Women's Hospital.