

For their 65th wedding anniversary, Henry Frye wrote wife Shirley this poem:

I have many friends,
At least I think I do
But when it comes to knowledge
I always think of you
As we approach the Anniversary

Of our wedding of 65

I thank God, my Doctors and you

For keeping me alive!

Alive, active and HAPPY

you see

Still together, you and me!

