

COLUMN

Something Special with Martha Jane Anderson

My good friend, the late Ann Youngblood Crowe, used to say,
“As our bodies need sun, exercise and the right food, our hearts and souls need words of truth from holy scripture.”

From Neville, we are grateful for three leading ladies who recently celebrated 70 years at Neville: Joy James McElroy, Beverly Martin, and Agnes Jones Golson!

We just have great results from the Annual Ruple-Brown Golf Tournament. The scholarship, which is worth $8000 to the winners, will now be awarded to two recipients, in stead of just one, which has been our goal.

The 2018 winners of the Championship Flight with 55 at Calvert Crossing were the brothers Ron Shemwell and Clay Shemwell who are Virginia Cage Shemwell's gifted boys and nephews to Dr. Mike, Carol and US Attorney Joseph Shelby Cage of Shreveport. Coach Ruple thought that Joe Cage was the finest athlete he ever coached. That is what he told me directly! Much credit to the Neville Golf Committee, players, sponsors and chairman, Pat Anderson, who began this event at the request of the Ruple Family with major sponsors, Joy and the late Bucky McElroy, through the James Machine Works. There have been 23 scholarships awarded and 99 per cent have finished their degrees! Luke Cagle, son of Dee and Taylor Cagle, is the 2018 scholarship recipient and will attend LSU.

Martha Jane Anderson retired as Assistant Dean of Students at ULM, SGA Advisor, Alpha Lambda Delta Regional Coordinator and National Council of Mortar Board.

For the ladies, the new Vogue is featuring the antique cameo's as back in style along with shells from the beach made into jewelry! Gold coins are a must so pull from your safe and start wearing them.

Hope you have one of the gold and enamel bracelets that were made popular by the Schlumberger oil magnets... red with gold X's and many other jewel tone colors trimmed in gold.

Two of our favorite Monroynes have been honored by the Jr. League of Monroe where they have been singled out for their volunteerism and their commitment to excellence for our communities: Mossy Sartor Guinn, the Louise Seymour Award; and Heather Aulds Guillot, the 2018 Volunteer of the Year Award! Congratulations to both and their families for supporting their efforts!

The local Duplicate Bridge Unit sponsored all day games for Altzeimers research on Friday last! Some $3200plus was raised for this greatly needed charity! Kudos to Martha Young for making this happen in our town! Many thanks to all the sponsors who gave prizes for the auction. Loretta Rivers and Barbara Norris won the most points, Martha Young and bridge partner, Elizabeth Bryan of Hebron, Miss., had a Friday morning high score of 70.3 percent.

Thank you Lord for being everything we need at all times...

We can count on you to guard our steps, bless the paths ahead, and carry us when our strength is gone!

We can do all things through Christ who strengthens us, just for the asking...Ephesians 3:13

Martha Jane

ABOVE: West Monroe's Suzanne Taylor, was sixth in the nation for Carlisle sales, which is quite an accomplishment. She was awarded at a ceremony in the Cayman Islands.

ABOVE: Melvyn Goldman, hosting and serving at the Lotus Club and many private parties in Monroe ... just the kindest and best!

LEFT: Cute Anna Clair Seymour.

RIGHT: Adam Upshaw Lewis and mother, Ainsley Lewis, listening to The Revelries in Baton Rouge.

ABOVE: Kiley Bruscato, granddaughter of Sharon T Brown and the late Sperry Brown, headed to LSU!

ABOVE: Rosemary Manning with her grands, Randy and Rosemary Ewing celebrating her Confirmation at St. Matthew Catholic Church

LEFT: Jamie and Jordan Guillot with boys, Paxton and Reed at Squire Creek for Father's Day!

The Ouachita Citizen accepts writeups and photos on topics including club news, social events, community service projects, schools, church happenings and more. Submit your item via email to news@ouachitacitizen.com. Call Heather Kaplan Card at 396-0602, ext. 206, for more information.

Custom Suits, Sport Coats & Dress Shirts

Ron Alexander CLOTHIERS FOR MEN INC

1615 North 18th Street, Monroe • 387-4409 www.ronalexanderclothiers.com

Aristoteles Pena-Miches, MD

TALKS on TOWER

"Children's Sleep Disorders & Head Injuries" What Parents Should Know

Presented by:
Dr. Aristoteles Pena-Miches
Pediatric Neurologist

Thursday, July 12th
12:00 Noon - Lunch Provided
St. Francis Community Health Center
2600 Tower Drive, Monroe | Community Room, 2nd Floor

Seating is limited, so please register early.
RSVP (318) 966-4792

Talks on Tower is a series provided by St. Francis Medical Group.

LONG MAY IT WAVE

Mike Walsworth
State Senator
District 33

STATE OF LOUISIANA

Paid for by Mike Walsworth