staffs trying to coach and manage this invisible opponent in COVID which has shaken up sports like nothing else.

Which makes me appreciate even more what Vidalia High accomplished after canceling its first two games and last regular season game even after replacing Delhi Charter with Bossier, which ended up being called off.

For the Vikings, whose lone win was against Madison, to play St. Helena to a 28-16 hard-fought loss in Gillsburg was an impressive feat.

St. Helena has been one of the top four Class 2A teams the past few years.

What Vidalia accomplished through all the turmoil was really amazing. Of all the games canceled this year, the Bossier at Vidalia game at the end was the most disappointing to me because of the strides this Viking team made during the season.

But to go down fighting the way the Vikings ended the season in Michael Norris' first year was quite a statement for the future of Vidalia football.

off the field."

Dupard said he will never forget the atmosphere at that playoff game.

"It was packed all around the football field," Dupard said. "I was not expecting that. People were standing all around the field.

Brian (Stropolo) scored a touchdown and threw the ball. Some girl caught it and threw it right back at him. After the game they came to our lockerroom to talk with us. There was a whole lot of respect in that dressing room. It's a game I never will forget."

ing to cancel its first two games against West Ouachita and Caldwell because of a positive COVID-19 test.

The Vikings' final game against Bossier was also canceled. That game was scheduled late after Delhi Charter canceled.

"It was a heckuva first year," Norris said. "It was definitely different. But our mantra all year was to show up every day and deal with any adversity."

The Vikings lone win came against Madison.

"That win gave us a lot of confidence," Norris said. "That's what we needed. Our mantra all year has been keep showing up and don't stress over things you can't control. Ever since day one they showed up and practiced hard. We had more guys join our team during the season than we had leave."

The game was the final for seniors Christian Davis, Walsworth, R'Kyrin McMillan, and Daniel Hartwell.

"I can't say enough about our seniors," Norris said. "They had half their season taken away but kept showing up with great attitudes. That's a true testament of the character these guys displayed all year."

St. Helena hosts Bunkie Friday.

LSHOF postponed

The Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame is postponing indefinitely its Dec. 15-17 Induction Celebration honoring the 11-member Class of 2020, after analyzing the state's new Covid-19 mitigation orders that went into effect Wednesday.

The 2020 inductees will be enshrined in the next few months.

The star-studded Class of 2020 includes outdoorsman Phil Robertson, recognized internationally as the Duck Commander, along with Sweet Lou Dunbar of the Harlem Globetrotters and Pro Bowl football standout Chicago Bears cornerback Charles "Peanut" Tillman, a star at UL Lafayette.
