

Something Special Martha Jane Anderson

Fall decorations are gorgeous in Northeast Louisiana. See photo of Diane Mears' front steps in Union Parish... perfection! The Lord is smiling on Diane's creativity.

This is the big week for the LSU Tigers and Coach Oeaux! Don't miss Saturday night in Death Valley at 8 p.m. vs. Bama!

Bayou Life is great with model, Ellie Jackson, and see Delta Style with Diane Cage who just returned from Nova Scotia!

Just look around at God's creation remembering...

He is always with us and will not forsake us. With His ever present guidance, we have nothing to fear, even the "election outcome." He tells us that we must abide by civil authority no matter the winner. God is almighty and sovereign and directs us to respect and honor all people, even those with whom we disagree!

The Word is truly pertinent to our times.

See 1 Peter: Chapter 2.

Amazing pastor, Michael Wood of First West, gave an outstanding message based on these scriptures.

So exciting was Taylor Hines singing performance with two other cheering Saintsations of the National Anthem at the start of the Sunday game in the Superdome against Seattle.

The anthem was on the Supertron and was a fabulous performance from an LSU Pi Phi and former Valedictorian at WMHS who was taught by Kristen and Greg Oden!

Sending God's kind of love and hope for a happy November!
