

Something Special Martha Jane Anderson

The Lord is our light and our salvation — whom shall we fear? The Lord is the stronghold of our lives! Adapted from Psalm 27: 1

The Children's Museum and Tour of homes is a "don't miss" occasion on Saturday, May 6. Guest speaker is Dallas great, Mil Bodron, and a great tour!

Neville Tennis will be playing for the state championship next week at Forsythe and ULM! Go Tigers!

Nancy and Bill Wilson are long time friends all the way back to Georgia Tucker. Nancy told me recently that of four children, two kept their noses in school books all the time and two could not find their school books!

Martha Jane Anderson retired from ULM after 35 years of service as Assistant Dean of Students and SGA Advisor.

Their grandson, Kelley and Chuck's son, Robert Magee, is first in his class of 500 at St. John's in Florida and has been awarded an Honors College Scholarship with a full ride to the University of South Carolina in International Finance! Yea!

BSF members will studying Romans next year! Martin Luther considered Romans the best of the Bible's books because it explains the law in the Old Testament and the hope and forgiveness of the New Testament. Dr. Frank Hoffmann said, "if he only had access to one book of the Bible, it would be Romans."

The worst we can do is being indifferent to the cross of Christ!

Psalm 22: Apart from Christ we are nothing!

Great friends, Dianne and Mike Cage, are celebrating Easter with Carol and Bob Cudd in their London flat. Twelve family members of the Cages are back from a fabulous Honduras vacation!

Friends whom we have lost that were so special to so many in our community in different ways:

Sperry Brown, Mike Riley, Henry Morgan Thomas, Dick Ethridge and Howard Hobson.

Sperry attended Mike's funeral and died the next day! We should all be getting ready for our final exam!

ULM's Ann Marie Cash has a fantastic voice. She sang from the heart on Easter at First West! Her grandparents are Barbara and Tommy Goleman.

Friday, June 2, is the 21st annual Ruple-Brown Golf Tournament. Call Pat at 318-348-6173 if interested!

We who believe can be certain of eternal life.

Sending God's kind of love to all,

Martha Jane

LEFT: Terry and Donna Ewing of Choudrant celebrating at Genusa's! ABOVE: Daughter and son-in-law, Allison and Chuck Mead of Choudrant! RIGHT: Kay and Larry Culpepper looking good in Baton Rouge.

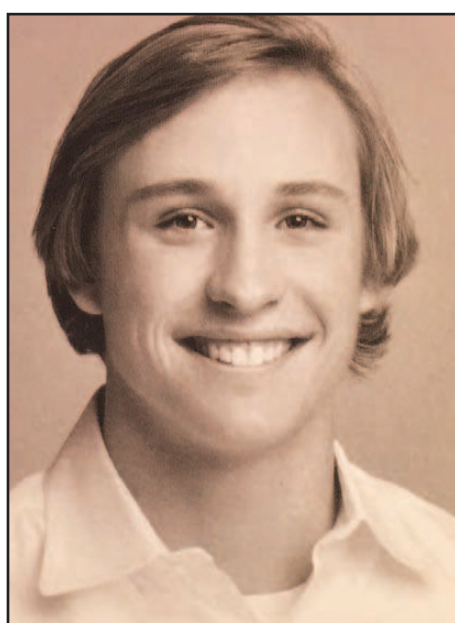

ABOVE: Friends gathered at BDCC include, seated: Loretta Rivers, Kenny Kirkland and Linda Taylor. Standing: Barbara Norris, Martha Young and Kathy Schendle.

ABOVE: Three generations of lovely ladies: Annie Stinson, mom, Karen and grand, Ann Ledoux!

ABOVE: Robert Magee first in his class of 500 at St. John's in Florida and has been awarded an Honors College Scholarship with a full ride to the University of South Carolina.

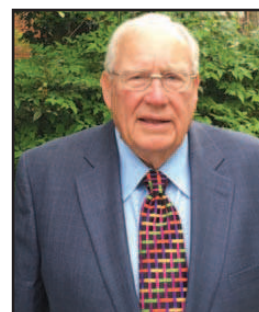

ABOVE: Adam Upshaw Lewis, graduating from LSU Lab School as football captain, and a fourth generation at LSU.

ABOVE: Gorgeous Riley McKernan and Mark Kent Anderson with McKernan Family in New York City.

LEFT: Daisy Walters with Easter Eggs from First West hunt, granddaughter of Dr. Kermit and Dianne Walters. ABOVE: Lovely Sharon Brown with great friend and relative, still gorgeous, Dolores Johnson.

LEFT: Sharon Brown, Martha Jane Anderson, Linda Reeves, and beach trip hostess Norene Smith and daughter, Dawn Sager. ABOVE: Pat Anderson on Easter Sunday.

ABOVE: Pretty Gail and Leon Miletello hosting at BDCC!

RIGHT: Nephew Brandon Ewing and darling wife, Susan Ewing, of Ruston,

ABOVE: Jean Rugg, Polly Dupuy and Emma Burkett celebrating Becca Dupuy's party at the Guillot's.

Louisiana Center for Weight Loss Surgery
A whole new perspective on life.
laweightlossurgery.com

Cody
- 150 pounds

Mattie
- 149 pounds