

ULM comes up just short against Eagles

MONROE – ULM came a long way back only to fall inches short Saturday night at Malone Stadium.

As time expired, quarterback Colby Suits was stopped short on a first-and-goal scramble from the 9 and the Warhawks dropped a 35-30 decision to Georgia Southern.

"A really tough game," ULM coach Matt Viator said. "I don't know if I've ever been associated with anything like that, that was that close on the last play of the game."

The game appeared headed for a blowout in the third quarter when Georgia Southern blocked a punt and scored a touchdown to take an 18-point lead. But the Warhawks got two big stops from the defense and scored on two consecutive possessions to rally.

"The excitement was unreal to be honest," said defensive end Ty Shelby, who contributed a career-high eight tackles. "The defense needed to put up some big plays and we did at the end of the game. We tried to get the offense a chance to score and we just came up short. At the end of the game, I respected the ref's decisions. I just wish we would have had it."

Before his final run, Suits converted a fourth-and-6 with 23 seconds with a scramble out of bounds down to the 9. Suits met two defenders on the last play at the 2-yard line and stretched toward the goal but was ruled down as the clock hit 0:00.

"We went empty and I dropped back," Suits said. "They emptied out the middle and everybody went back. They thought we were going to throw the ball and I saw nobody in front of me and tried to get to the goal line. I don't know. I guess according to them, I came up short."

After a lengthy review, the call stood and the Warhawks fell to 0-4, 0-2 in the Sun Belt.

"Me personally, I actually thought he got in," ULM running back Josh Johnson said. "But that whole drive, coach was calling a good offense. We were executing. We just couldn't get it done. But we fought hard all game."

Suits completed 31-of-54 passes for 334 yards and two touchdowns without a turnover and led ULM with 51 rushing yards on seven carries. ULM out-gained Georgia Southern 426 to 369 and finished 5-of-5 on fourth-down conversions.

"That's a glimpse of what the real ULM looks like," said Johnson, who rushed for 40 yards and scored two touchdowns and had five catches for 25 yards and another score. "With the offense giving the defense a chance, that's what you're going to see the rest of the season."

Georgia Southern running back J.D. King was a royal pain for ULM for most of the game as he battered the Warhawks for 196 rushing yards and a touchdown. Georgia Southern (2-1, 1-1 Sun Belt) rode its triple option attack to 340 rushing yards overall while also benefitting from a shaky performance by ULM special teams.

In addition to difficulties stopping the Eagles' ground game, ULM had two punts blocked, with one recovered for a touchdown and missed a PAT.

Despite their troubles, the Warhawks made it interesting late by cutting the lead to five with less than five minutes left in the game.

ULM's defense stiffened in the fourth quarter, using a big sack by Ivin White Jr. to force Georgia Southern's second punt and give the Warhawks a chance to make noise on offense.

ULM capitalized with an eight-play, 80-yard drive that ended with Johnson smashing into the end zone for a 2-yard touchdown, his second on the ground and third of the game. ULM trailed 35-30 with 4:59 remaining.

White came up big again with Keyshawn Johnson on third-down tackle that forced a Georgia Southern punt with 2:42 to go.

"When the defense made a stop, we knew we had a shot to do it," Suits said. "We had all the confidence in the world."

The Warhawks started their final drive at their own 27 and crossed midfield on a 22-yard pass to Jevin Frett. Suits was hit as he threw incomplete to Chandler Whitfield in the end zone on third-and-6 from the 16, prior to converting on fourth down. ULM moved 72 yards in 13 plays before Suits gained 8 yards on his last run.

"It's tough to lose that way, but I'm proud of guys and the way we fought," Suits said. "We played as hard as we could."

ULM, which hasn't led in a game this season, was playing from behind from the start.

The Eagles needed three King carries to cover 68 yards and score on their opening drive. King's 62-yard run set up his 3-yard touchdown as Georgia Southern went up 7-0 with 11:25 to go in the first quarter.

A sequence of special teams plays, one bad and one good, set up ULM's first score.

After another quick defensive stop on ULM's second series, the Eagles partially blocked Daniel Sparks' punt and took over at the 50. But ULM's defense hung tough, then the Warhawks sniffed out and stuffed a fake punt to take over their own 43.

ULM converted a fourth-and-7 with a 22-yard Josh Pederson catch to keep the nine-play, 40-yard drive alive. Davis Hughes booted a 34-yard field goal with 3:21 left in the opening period for a 7-3 score.

Early in the second quarter, King converted on third-and-8 with a 41-yard run and topped 100 yards on just his fourth carry of the game. Wesley Kennedy's 4-yard touchdown run capped Georgia Southern's second scoring march and extended the lead to 14-3 with 12:47 to go.

Johnson dodged a defender and scored his first touchdown of the season with a nifty 26-yard run at the 10:04 mark and pulled ULM within 14-10. Johnson also contributed a 14-yard rush and Suits was 3-for-3 for 34 yards on the six-play, 72-yard drive.

Georgia Southern chewed up most of the remaining second quarter with a 75-yard, 15-play drive that consumed 8:27 off the clock. Kennedy's 5-yard rushing touchdown put the Eagles ahead 21-10 with 1:37 left before the half.

Suits had ULM on the 2-yard line with three seconds to go, where the Warhawks went for the touchdown instead of the kick. Suits, who completed 4-of-4 passes for 50 yards, hit Malik Jackson as time expired for a 21-17 halftime score.
