Marceaux sets goals

Expectations are ingrained into the fabric of the LSU baseball program, but it's a pressure to perform that tested Landon Marceaux in a different way than most.

His résumé was decorated before he even threw a pitch for the Tigers: Perfect Game's No. 1 rated player in Louisiana, a draft choice of the New York Yankees, Team USA World Cup gold medalist, and three-time 1st Team All-District selection were just a few of the feathers in his cap.

In three preseason scrimmages as a freshman, Marceaux threw 10.2 innings, giving up no runs, tallying 17 strikeouts. A week before that, he was named Preseason Freshman of the Year by Baseball America. The fanfare was mounting, as one could imagine. Those were all eye-popping accolades at the time, but he'd probably tell you it did more harm than good for his psyche.

Three years later, now in control of LSU's Friday night starter role, Marceaux has learned a thing or two about hype: how to manage it, how to block it out. There's been a lot of self-reflection along the way. More than anything, he's realized how to stay true to himself and not try to be someone he's not.

He achieved that in many ways. For starters, it didn't take long for Marceaux to delete his social media and listen to the people that matter most. "It was after he went through a rough spot his freshman year, he just turned that stuff off," said Joey Marceaux, Landon's father. "He was getting the kind of stuff you get on there."

Marceaux turned to his coaches and his parents, and tuned out the comments on Instagram and Twitter. His authentic self was always on a dirt hill anyway, 60 feet, six inches away from a white plate. That's where a quiet and reserved Marceaux has always felt the most outgoing.

GO BACK IN TIME and you'll find a young Marceaux sitting in front of the television set watching the MLB Network as if class was in session, taking mental notes from the commentators, imitating the grips that former pitchers on set were using, even looking up videos of Greg Maddux on the side.

Marceaux idolized a handful of pitchers, but his favorite to watch growing up was Pedro Martinez, three-time Cy Young award winner and, like Maddux, a member of Cooperstown.

Fascinated with how explosive and powerful Martinez was for his size, Marceaux found a certain relatability to his own body type, which inspired him to emulate his grips and mechanics and use them as his own.

"I've done so much research on Pedro on how explosive he was, how powerful he was," said Marceaux. "That was very, very interesting to me. We have similar bodies. I'm not quite as explosive as him. But, a lot of my pitch grips mimic his. That's where the studying of the game was really fascinating to me."

Baseball quickly became a hobby for Joey, too, and the two would bond for hours on end over their shared passion. Joey would do pitching research, look up analytics, and study the game, even becoming Landon's travel ball pitching coach from age 11 to 14. At that point, everything in the house revolved around baseball.

The relationship between Marceaux and his father went far beyond playing catch in the backyard with pops — and it still does.

Sure, Marceaux has picked up some other hobbies and interests since going away to college. Hunting, the outdoors, visiting the family property in Vermilion Parish. But there's certainly one constant: he eats, sleeps, breathes baseball. That's his life, and he wouldn't want it any other way.

CLAYTON

Safe Drinking Water Act:
Notice of Violation/Public Notification of Non-Compliance Disinfectants/Disinfection By-Products Rule (TIHMs) MCL Violation Community Water System
Town Of Clayton Water System
PWS ID# LA1029002
Concordia Parish

The Town Of Clayton Water System is currently in violation of the maximum contaminant level (MCL) for total trihalomethanes as set forth by the State [Part XII of the Louisiana State Sanitary Code (LAC 51:XII)J] and the Federal Primary Drinking Water Regulations (40 CFR Part 141).

The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the Louisiana Department of Health (LDH) set drinking water standards and requires the disinfection of drinking water. Where disinfection is used in the treatment of drinking water, disinfectants combine with naturally occurring organic and inorganic matter present in water to form chemicals called disinfection byproducts (DBPs). EPA and LDH set standards for controlling the levels of disinfectants and DBPs in drinking water, including trihalomethanes (THMs) and haloacetic acid (HAAs). Some people who drink water containing THMs in excess of the MCL over many years may experience problems with their liver, kidneys, or central nervous system, and may have an increased risk of getting cancer.

In December 1998, EPA set enforceable drinking water standards for TTHMs at 80 parts per billion (ppb) and for HAA5 at 60 parts per billion (ppb) to reduce the risk of cancer or other adverse health effects. Compliance with the TTHMs and HAA5 standard for public water systems serving less than 10,000 individuals initially became effective and enforceable on January 1, 2004. Compliance with the TTHMs standard is determined by calculating a locational running annual average (LRAA) of quarterly TTHMs sample results. Compliance calculations performed for the first quarter of 2021 show that the system's current TTHMs LRAAs are 132 ppb at DBP02- 154 CARTER and 83 ppb at DBP03- LOOMIS ST; Thus, the system is currently in violation of the TTHMs standard.

Please share this information with all the other people who drink this water, especially those who may not have received this notice directly (for example, people in apartments, nursing homes, schools, and businesses). You can do this by posting this notice in a public place or distributing copies by hand or mail.

This is not an emergency. If it had been, you would have been notified immediately. EPA and LDH do not consider this violation to have any serious adverse health effects on human health as a result of short-term exposure; however, continued long-term exposure to TIHMs and HAAs levels above the standard (e.g., 20 years of exposure) has the potential to have serious adverse effects on human health.

JCP our water operator is working with the state to resolve this matter. If there are any question(s) please call Clayton City Hall at: (318) 757-8540.

Grambling, Southern meeting Saturday

The 47th Annual Bayou Classic between Grambling and Southern will be played Saturday in Shreveport.

Last year, organizers of the Bayou Classic joined with school leadership from both Grambling State University and Southern University and A&M College, Mayor Adrian Perkins of Shreveport and Shreveport-Bossier's Sports Commission to announce that the 47th Annual Bayou Classic would be temporarily moved to Shreveport, La.

The game will be played on at Independence Stadium in Shreveport. Coach Fobbs speaks at the 2021 Bayou Classic press conference.

"It is definitely an honor and a privilege for us to be speaking about playing the Bayou Classic in this current state of pandemic that we've been in," said Grambling State head coach Broderick Fobbs. "It has been extremely tough for not only the coaches and administrators, but also our players. We've gone through and dealt with a lot. Not only that but the fact that we've been watching others play, even though we feel we are doing the correct thing by not playing at this particular time. Overall we're looking forward to playing the Bayou Classic in Shreveport, La. and it's going to be great for north Louisiana and it's also going to be great for south Louisiana as well to have this game being played on Louisiana soil, so we look forward to it," said Fobbs.

The Bayou Classic has proven to be a steadfast beacon of legacy and tradition that extends beyond the HBCU community.

Fans from across the nation journey to witness the electrifying football game between Grambling and Southern, while eagerly awaiting the highly anticipated halftime show featuring two of the greatest marching bands in the nation.

Due to the substantial scope of the Phase 2 renovation work to begin in January 2021 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans, the annual home of the Bayou Classic, this rescheduled annual matchup between the Grambling Tigers and the Southern Jaguars had to be temporarily moved to another location.

This is a one-time, temporary move of location, similar to 2005 following Hurricane Katrina when the Bayou Classic was played in Houston, Texas.

Former Ferriday Trojan Lewis Matthews and former Delta Charter defensive back Freddie Mango will be suiting up for Grambling.

Former Ferriday quarterback Kobe Dillon signed with Southern after playing at Hinds Community College last sea-

McNeese to play LSU in 2021

Five home games and road contests at LSU and Southern, highlight McNeese's 2021 fall football schedule.

In addition, the Cowboys will play an eight-game Southland Conference slate in the new-look league with home-and-home matchups against Northwestern State, Southeastern Louisiana and Incarnate Word.

"This is an exciting time with the shape of the new Southland Conference and we're excited to be playing football back in the fall," said athletic director Heath Schroyer. "We're looking forward to extending the nation's longest fall season winning streak."

McNeese will open up the season at home on September 4 against 2019 NCAA Division II National Champion West Florida. The Argonauts, a member of the Gulf South Conference, a Division II power league, did not play a 2020 season but in 2019, posted a 13-2 record while winning the national title.

The Cowboys will then play three straight games away from home starting on Sept. 11 at LSU. McNeese will make a return trip to Baton Rouge the next week when it visits Southern (Sept. 18) then will open up conference play at UIW on Sept. 25.

McNeese and LSU will take the field together for the first time since the 2015 season when the game was canceled due to the weather early in the first quarter. The Cowboys defeated Southern 34-28 to open up the 2019 season.

Following the league opener at UIW, the Cowboys will return home to host Southeastern Louisiana on Oct. 2.

Two words sum up McNeese's 27-13 loss to 5th-ranked Sam Houston on Saturday ... missed opportunities.

The Cowboys missed a field goal, had to settle for two field goals instead of touchdowns after driving inside the Sam Houston 10, dropped a touchdown pass and fumbled the ball at the 1 leaving a potential 25 points off the board.

In addition, a running into the kicker call in the third quarter gave Sam Houston the ball back and four plays later resulted in a touchdown and turned the ball over on downs with the ball in Bearkat territory.

Quarterback Cody Orgeron completed 27 of 42 passes for 291 yards and a touchdown while also rushing for 18 yards.

LSU gymnastics to Fort Worth

Rotations for Semifinal I and II of the 2021 NCAA Gymnastics Championships held on Friday, April 16 in Fort Worth, Texas, have been announced.

No. 3 LSU will compete in the second semifinal at 5 p.m. inside Dickies Arena.

The meet will be televised live on ESPN2 with Bart Conner and Kathy Johnson Clarke on the call. Specific event streams will also be available at WatchESPN.com.

All rotations were predetermined by random draw prior to the season. As the second-place finisher of the Salt Lake City Regional, LSU will begin the meet on floor before going to vault, bars and closing on beam. This is the same rotation the Tigers compete in the regional final.

LSU will compete against No. 1 Oklahoma No. 6 Utah and No. 7 Alabama in the second session. UCLA's Chase Campbell will also rotate with the Tigers as an individual all-around qualifier. The first session of the day will take place at noon CT and feature No. 1 Florida, No. 4 Michigan, No. 5 California and No. 8 Minnesota.

The top two teams from each NCAA

Semifinal will advance to the NCAA Championship Final. LSU advanced to the first final featuring four teams in 2019 and matched the program's best finish of second place.

Individual event and all-around national champions will also be determined during the semifinal competition. LSU has 15 individual national champions in its history.

The last individual national champions for the Tigers came in 2019 when Sarah Finnegan and Kennedy Edney repeated as bars and vault titles.
