Tigers roll past Louisiana Christian in exhibition

The LSU Tigers picked up a solid 132-44 win over Louisiana Christian Monday night in the first exhibition game inside the Pete Maravich Assembly Center since the 2016-17 campaign.

The 2023-2024 season begins for LSU at 7 p.m. CT on Monday, Nov. 6, when they host Mississippi Valley State in the Maravich Center. Season tickets remain on sale, as well as single-game tickets for the November-December non-conference games. Fans can find information on all ticket packages at LSUTix.net.

Four newcomers got the start for LSU, including three transfers: Will Baker, Carlos Stewart, and Jordan Wright, and true freshman Mike Williams III. Jalen Reed was the only returner from last season to start.

The Tigers imposed their will early with their first eight points coming in the paint before Wright knocked down a 3-pointer for his first basket as an LSU Tiger, making the score 11-2.

LSU amassed a 23-5 run, highlighted by 13 unanswered points to build a 66-24 lead at the half. LSU's lead expanded in the second half and the Tigers closed the game on a 14-0 run. LSU led the entire 39:26 of the game.

Wright led the Tigers with 22 points in his debut in the purple and gold. Wright drained four 3-pointers and registered five steals, three assists and three rebounds.

Tyrell Ward and Mwani Wilkinson finished with 19 and 17 points, respectively, and both knocked down five triples. Four other Tigers reached double-figure scoring, including Daimion Collins (15), Will Baker (14), Carlos Stewart (12) and Jalen Reed (11). D'Marcus Fuggett led Louisiana Christian with 15 points and four rebounds. He was also 6-of-10 from the free-throw line.

Mango collects four tackles

Five turnovers on a dreary Saturday afternoon in the Natural State spoiled SWOSU's chances against (RV) Southern Arkansas, as the Bulldogs fell to the Muleriders 41-10.

Freddie Mango, who prepped at Delta Charter, collected four tackles for Southwestern Oklahoma.

For a second week in a row, SWOSU saw success moving the football and finished with 280 yards on offense. They nearly outgained the Muleriders, who ended with 329 yards which was bolstered by a final drive to get them over the 300-mark.

Running back Dexter Brown was a big reason for the success. He finished with a career high 139 yards on the ground and averaged 6.0 yards per rush.

The defense limited the Muleriders' rushing attack to 60 yards below their season average and held dual-threat quarterback OB Jones to just 96 yards passing and 37 yards rushing. The two-time GAC Player of the Week was averaging triple digits on the ground for the Muleriders entering the day.

The offensive problem for the Dawgs wasn't gaining yards, it was maintaining possession. SWOSU's first three turnovers of the game came on SAU's side of the field when potential points could have been available.

Southern Arkansas opened the game up on a 14-play, 68-yard touchdown drive. They added a field goal early in the second quarter and led 10-0 before turnovers started coming into play.

A sack fumble in the second quarter eliminated SWOSU's first scoring threat.

Later in the quarter, after RJ Powell forced a fumble which was recovered by Richard Silva to get the ball back, the Muleriders intercepted Calvin Cloud's third down pass in the end zone to again keep SWOSU off the scoreboard.

SAU did not score off that turnover on the ensuring drive but did get the ball back again before the half ended and added another touchdown. Southern Arkansas led 17-0 at halftime.

Matthews shines for GSU

The Grambling State University football team got back in the win column with a dominating 28-14 triumph over Bethune-Cookman on Saturday afternoon at Harris-Williams Field at Eddie G. Robinson Memorial Stadium.

Lewis Matthews of Ferriday had eight tackles and two quarterback hurries.

GSU (4-4 overall, 3-2 SWAC) used a punishing ground attack and opportunistic defense to batter the Wildcats. The Tigers gashed BCU (1-7, 0-5) for 230 yards. GSU gave the Wildcats a heavy dose of the thunder and lightning backfield duo of Chance Williams and Floyd Chalk.

Williams sprinted for 119 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries, while Chalk bowled his way to 80 yards and one TD on nine carries.

GSU amassed 334 yards of total offense.

Grambling played perhaps its most complete defensive game of the year, limited BCU to just 177 yards of total offense and forcing three interceptions and one fumble. The Tigers also registered four sacks on the afternoon.
