ACCS advances past Silliman

When Adams County Christian School and Starkville Academy both moved up from MAIS Class AAA to 5A it didn't change the playoff landscape.

ACCS hosts Starkville Friday in a semifinal contest.

The meeting will be the fourth straight playoff encounter between both schools.

ACCS lost to Starkville in the semifinals last year, but the Rebels defeated the Volunteers last year on its way to a state champi-

The Rebels advanced to the semifinals with a 23-6 win over Silliman, which defeated ACCS during the regular season.

"That was probably our most complete game of the season," said ACCS head coach David King.

AC's first score came as Cory Sewell caught a pass in the Wildcat end zone as Yohan Thompson was bringing down the Silliman quarterback.

D.J. Stampley ran in for the two-point conversion to give ACCS an 8-0 lead.

Stampley would end up breaking his leg later in the game, while Thompson was also injured.
