Something Special

Martha Jane Anderson

A blind man offered his favorite scriptures and the following is one shared by Sue Crowe with our Life Group at First West from Ephesians 2: 8-9...

"For it is by grace we have been saved through our faith, and this is not from ourselves, but it is a gift from God, not by our works, so that no one can boast."

It is so rare that a father and son be honored by their high school as "Distinguished Alumni" on the same night; however, Rick and Ricky Guillot were named on Friday night last. Late grandmother, John Ann Painich Anderson and grandfather, Patrick H. Anderson are in the Hall of Fame for WMHS and Neville, respectively. The only other family with a similar distinction is that of the late Bucky McElroy with wife Joy James McElroy, son and daughter, the late Paul McElroy and daughter, Susan McElroy Weaver at Neville.

Martha Jane Anderson retired from ULM after 35 years of service as Assistant Dean of Students and SGA Advisor.

Former Senate President Randy Ewing and wife, Rosemary, hosted a fabulous Country Brunch at their beautiful home in Quitman, with lake, barn, pool, horses, turkeys, dogs and chickens that made it fun! Great niece, Ainsley Scott Anderson and fiancé, Dr. Vincent Herlevic, were the honorees. The menu included mimosas, Randy's homemade cinnamon rolls, fried chicken, marinated tomatoes, corn casserole, broccoli salad, field peas, brownies, caramel and chocolate chip cookies. Other family hosting included Allison and Chuck Mead, Ainsley and Jason Lewis, Susan and Brandon Ewing, Judge Wendell and Ashley Manning. A truly neat thing in our family are the close relationships shared by five cousins in the photo who are in school at LSU at the same time.

A simply elegant announcement party for AnneMarie Martin and Stephen Collura was held in the lovely home of Carolyn and Dr. David Barnes. The food was fabulous and Pat Nolan was the chef! Just fantastic tenderloin, fresh figs and cream cheese on toast points, grilled shrimp, best ever spinach and artichoke dip, top shelf libations, and a gorgeous cake imitating a brides' dress in soft white frosted icing over a sumptuous chocolate cake.

The Terry, Donald, and Daran Reeves families hosted the 93rd birthday party for Sally Hines in Dallas whose favorite sports team is the Rangers! All had home-plate seats thanks to her grandsons, Daran and Donald. Sally's name and birthday greetings were on the giant screen and Donald hosted the "wining and dining" at just the best places in Dallas!

Jerry and Suzanne Wolff just returned from St. Louis celebrating his 60th class reunion at Webster Groves High!

Dianne and Mike Cage hosted two rounds of Neville Reunion parties on Friday last and a Sunday Brunch at the Cage's upscale Chauvin River House. Still darling Sidney Greenblatt was in town from Houston! The Cages are about caring and sharing with family and friends!

All who choose Christ, gain a new spirit, an open heart, and a new way of life.
