

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE: Veteran's Day

Veterans day means we respect people that have fought for us. We pay them back by respecting them. My family likes veterans day because my grandpa was in the army. He was in the vietnam war. Some day I might wanna be in the army. If I was in the army people would be respected to. But I wouldn't just do it for that I would do it to protect my family. This passage is about veterans day & some about my family. I hope that this informed you about veterans day. I also hope that this helped you respect people that do things for us.
