

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE:

Veteran's Day

It means we represent people in the war. People in the war fight for are country. Even if your dead or alive its still Veterans Day for you. We thank every one in are military every day that fight for us. I do know someone that went to the military my Cousins friend went to the military. You can call it military or army I call it both. You can go to the Veterans Day Parade I went one time. I think they started Veterans Day to represent every one that was in the army. I'm so glad that we have people that that go to war every day that risk there life
