

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE: Veteran's Day

To honor the day who fought for us. The date is November eleven. Veteran's day is really called Armistice Day. I honor all of the Veterans in the United States.

No one in my family was in the army. But I know some people's families where in the army. My friend's dad was in the army. It must be hard for people to go away.

Veteran's day is a day to celebrate and honor people in the army. Celebrate a soldier that was in the army. Remember people who saved us. Go look at the graves of the people who saved us.
