

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE:

Veterans Day
Veterans Day is the day that we support Veterans. Vets are people who fought for our lives if they did not do that we would not be here today. My dad was a Veteran and so was my uncle. Sadly my uncle lost away in war. My idea of Veterans day is where they helped us live if you get that now. We support them for fighting for our lives. Veterans Day is on November 11.
