

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 75 and 200 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709. PLEASE LEAVE WITH THE SCHOOL SECRETARY IN THE OFFICE AT YOUR SCHOOL AND COMPLETE NO LATER THAN NOV. 2!

ESSAY TITLE: A Day To Honor Our Heros

On November eleventh we honor our veterans who have fought in wars and disagreements like world war one, World war two and other wars and conflicts. All veterans (in wars or not) should be honored. If we didn't have have people serve in the military we wouldn't have freedom or rights all veterans has fought for a reason so they could come home and have freedom and some time with spouse and kids. I believe all veterans should be honored very well and if they get ill or sick they should not have to pay to get treated because of all they did for this country I think Veterans day is one of the best holidays.
