

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE:

The great veterans
These are the greatest people to risk their lives for us and help our nation and help families.
They save people and there the best people in the world. I might be one to not know but there the only soldiers that protect us every day of there life they don't do it for money they do it to protect us every day. There here for a reason every good reason no bad ones they help with every thing including items and produce lots more. then you think they leave families with husbands moms kids kids dogs to protect us. they do stuff we don't know about to protect us.
They sacrifice to make us feel safe.
MY Great grandpa
