

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE: How You Feel About Veterans Day

How I feel about Veterans Day is people serving our country. Trying to help not kill people on purpose but to do what's right for our country. There are some bad people in the world but we don't want to kill them. We do it to save our country. I like to say that Veterans Day is to honor our family members who have served our country. That's what it is all about people honoring their country trying to help some people in our country. I also love enjoying spending time with my family members. I love the people who care about other people even though some may make wrong choices.

That makes me feel happy about the people who serve in militarys.

They are brave and strong and they are always there for us. They are the best people I know.
