

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 75 and 200 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709. PLEASE LEAVE WITH THE SCHOOL SECRETARY IN THE OFFICE AT YOUR SCHOOL AND COMPLETE NO LATER THAN NOV. 2!

ESSAY TITLE: Veterans Day

I'm happy Veterans Day is a hol. day!

All the veterans that protect us. So many people die for us, and our country. They make us feel safe. They make sure we are free. Soldiers risk their lives in every war for our safety.

All of the freedom they give us. They fight in war to give us freedom. Sometimes they've bombs to attack the enemy. They use different weapons to win their battles.

Veterans protect our country from the enemies. They protect our country by going to war and not letting the enemy win. Then they attack the camps with all of their weapons.

veterans fight all of the enemies
that don't like us.

In summary I'm happy that Veterans Day is a holiday. All the veterans that protect us deserve
a special day
