

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE: Veteran's Day

It means alot because people have the path to go to warland. It means alot to me so I go to the Veteran's parade. It is important because my papaw Davies was in the army. You can call it military or army. Veteran's Day is to represent the people how lived throw Warland II. I Am so thankful for the people how went to war because so many people lose there life in wars. I am so glad we have people that will risk there life for America. If you see some one that was in the army or military you should say thank them for there series.

You should talk to the people in the army and military.
