

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE: The people that served The veterans that served were brave people. Veterans day is all about honoring men and women who served in the military. It's a public holiday to celebrate the anniversary of the end of world war one on November the eleventh.
A lot of people honor the day by visiting the cemetery of the people that served our country.
The way mr, mom and my sister celebrate this day is we go to my brothers and greatgrandparents grave my greatgrandfather was in the war I'm very proud about that we also clean, decorate other graves that look like they need it.
