

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE: _____

Americans honor Veterans with thier own special day each year. Veterans day is officially recognised on this Sunday November 11, 2018 and celebrated on Monday November 12, 2018. There are over a million soldiers serving in our Navy, Army, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard and Special Forces. These men and women make the ultimate sacrifice by risking thier lives every day. They all leave thier families and homes to serve our country. They risk thier lives so that our country will stay free. Veterans day is special to me because my step dad served and my uncle is currently serving. I am very proud that they chose to serve our country. I wish to say thank you for your services to evrey one that serves.
