

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE: Veterans Day

Veterans Day is a legal holiday remembering veterans who have fought for our country formerly called Armistice Day. It is now celebrated on the fourth Monday in October. Veterans Day means to me that we honor people who fought there lives for our freedom like my uncle, grandpa, and more. What I do for Veterans day is we get a ballen with a note to my grandpa he died before I got to honored him I do this every year we respect them they didnt fight for our contry for nothing. so thats what Veterans day means to me and how we celabrate.
