

QUESTION: What does Veterans Day mean to you?

The Bristol Herald Courier wants to hear from our youngest readers on what Veterans Day means to them. Please write a short essay (between 100 and 250 words) on what veterans mean to you. Select essays may appear with the student's name and school in an upcoming edition of the Bristol Herald Courier. Students are asked to bring their essays to JOE TENNIS - features writer and columnist - who is appearing at this year's Career Fair at Virginia High School on Oct. 19. Any questions? Please email Joe Tennis, jtennis@bristolnews.com. Call or text 276-791-0709.

ESSAY TITLE:

What They Mean to Me
They have fought for us since 1776 and ever since. Soldier helped grow this country and they have helped protect it without them we are dominated without wars, nukes, war gas, = Death = War. I used to want to be a military personnel but now I just want to be a patrol officer or SAT.
Special response team = SAT. That is who I feel about veterans.
They fight for freedom. arrah
they try hard every day.
