

COMMUNITY PULSE

SUNDAY, MARCH 28, 2021

A SPECIAL PROGRESS EDITION SUPPLEMENT TO THE Archdale-Trinity News THE HIGH POINT ENTERPRISE THOMASVILLE TIMES

SEE WHAT'S HAPPENING IN THE AREA INSIDE

Congdon Yards is centerpiece of downtown redevelopment .....	2	GTCC returns more students to campus .....	12
Peters becoming big player in downtown investment .....	4	Rockers get ready for year two .....	13
Thomasville looks ahead to future strategic planning .....	4	EGGER completes journey to begin operations .....	14
Food hall, marketplace eyes summer opening .....	4	New HPU arena takes shape .....	15
City makes strides in economic development .....	5	Schools adjust to COVID-19 .....	16
Local retail weathers challenging year .....	6	Schools in Thomasville overcome whirlwind year .....	16
Residential explosion means opportunity for Randolph County .....	6	Blessing Park opening nears .....	17
Children's museum to bring fun adventures .....	7	Randolph Health's future brightens with merger .....	17
Thomasville hospital expects busy year .....	9	Urgent care chain plans second High Point location .....	17
Hospital has ambitious plans .....	10	HPU growth continues amid pandemic .....	18
New police headquarters opens in May .....	10	New name reflects DDCC mission .....	19
Pandemic slows progress, gains made in Thomasville .....	11	Archdale, Trinity await arrival of new school .....	19
Archdale enjoys retail growth in I-85 corridor .....	11		