Students in Lisa West's third-grade class pick up garbage in honor of Earth Day at Bronco Arena Tuesday.

Celebrating the Earth

Third-graders at Falls Elementary grabbed their gloves and rubber boots Tuesday and ventured into the great outdoors. In honor of Earth Day, the students in Lisa West's class traveled around Falls Elementary, Bronco Arena, and West End Elementary picking up trash. While some found splashing in puddles more interesting, most seemed excited to make the Earth a better place. And every piece of garbage the youngsters picked up, they made sure to proudly announce to their teacher.

Olivia Line rushes to deposit a piece of garbage in a trash bag just outside Falls Elementary.

Ellen Windels, left, and Emberlyn Whiteford, hold open a bag for a piece of garbage picked up by Destry Whitbeck.

Nate Dremmel grabs a piece of garbage to put in a bag held by Ashton Werdier.

Cambria Keep appears grossed out by a piece of garbage she just handled.

James Lacher stands next to his garbage find, which Lisa West suggested the class recycle.
