The girls hockey “border battle” along the Rainy River between International Falls and Fort Frances has ended in another season split.

The Broncos scored both of their goals in the second period Tuesday night when they shut out the Muskies, 2-0, at Bronco Arena.

“The kids played really good,” said Falls head coach Gerald Bolstad. “I thought we used our speed.... I just thought our effort was wonderful and it was a nice win.”

The Broncos’ first goal came on the power play 3:49 into the second period when Amber Tilander scored unassisted.

Falls’ final goal came with 5:09 to play in the second period when Amy Auran scored assisted by Hillary Fox and Tessa Walls.

Taylor Fish recorded the shutout victory in goal for the Broncos by making 18 saves. Fort Frances goalie Calie Clendenning stopped 21 of 23 shots in picking up the loss.

The win avenged the loss on Dec. 3 when the Falls fell to the Muskies, 6-2, at Ice for Kids Arena in Fort Frances.

“We were a lot more solid in our own end, defensively,” Bolstad said. “We played very well. We took care of the puck. We didn’t turn over the puck too many times and I thought we handled their forecheck very well.”

The Broncos and the Muskies have split their two-game season series for the second year in a row.
