Team No. 6 Jeff Hamilton, Ranier, and Joel Pagnac, Falls, show a couple smallmouth as they ready for weigh ins Saturday. The team finished 29th with 21.70 pounds of fish, but say they lost a nice one that would have boosted their total weight.

A father-son team from International Falls, Jon McDonald and George McDonald hoist four smallies as they wait for weigh ins Saturday. The team finished 22nd with 23 pounds.

A father-daughter team, Lexi and Kevin Erickson, of International Falls, show a few of their catch on stage Saturday. The team finished 11th with 27.45 pounds.

Dave Skallat, Andover, Minn., and Mark Fisher, St. Francis, Minn., led the tournament after a productive day on Rainy Lake Friday. Team No. 43 came in fourth overall with 32.05 pounds of fish.

BORDERLAND'S CHOICE FOR INFORMATION

Father and daughter Randy and Sarah Graves fished Rainy Lake Saturday and finished the tournament with 5.25 pounds. Randy fished with his son last year and said he would either buy another boat or flip a coin to determine which of his kids would fish next year. Both of International Falls, the team said they had a lot of fun fishing together.
