Teresa Lynn (Klemetsen) Doherty

On Wednesday, April 2, 2014, the angels carried another one of this city's most loved, honest and cherished ladies up to the heavens above.

Teresa was born June 3, 1963, to Ross and Jackie Klemetsen in Littlefork, Minn.

The family moved to DeKalb, Ill., for a few years before moving back to Big Falls, Minn., then to International Falls, Minn.

Teresa graduated from Falls High School in 1981.

She began working at International Falls Public Library part-time at age 15, which, in turn, eventually became full-time four years later.

She truly enjoyed working with the public—greeting everyone she came across with a smile and always willing to help in any way she could.

She especially enjoyed her mornings with her parents, engaging in spoon tossing fights with her father.

She loved to socialize, dancing with her husband, and cuddling with her kitties “Princess” and

“Sweet Libby.”

Teresa is survived by her parents; brother, Jeff Klemetsen of Andover, Minn.; numerous uncles, aunts, nephews; and loving husband, Dan Doherty, who stayed by her side.

Rest in peace, my love.

Per Teresa's request, no services are planned.

Condolences may be sent to: C/O Klemetsen/Doherty Family, 4074 Highway 11, International Falls, MN 56649.

Family graveside farewell will take place at a later date.

Reaching over 8,000 homes, shacks, and cabins.
