November fun coming to library

The library has some fun programs planned for November.

Join us for a wonderful afternoon Thursday, Nov. 6, at 3:30 p.m., with Henry Boucha, Ojibwa-Native American Olympian, in a free program about his life growing up in Warroad, becoming an Olympic and NHL hockey player and how his Ojibwa roots have helped him persevere through challenges and tragedies to become a leader in raising awareness about Native American athletes today. The program will include a display of Olympic and NHL hockey memorabilia, for ages 8 and up.

Storytime continues the first three Thursdays of November at 10:30 a.m. with stories about “Things that Go” for two weeks, followed by Thanksgiving stories on Nov. 20. Each week following storytime the library makes it preschool science toys available for children to stay and play for about 30 minutes. There will be no storytime on Thursday, Nov. 27, due to the library being closed for Thanksgiving.

The library will be closed on Tuesday, Nov. 11, in observance of Veterans’ Day.

The library will be open on Monday, Nov. 10, but with limited access to computers, movies, paperbacks and magazines as we are getting new carpeting laid in the north half of the main floor. We will set up a couple of computers and some movies available, but much of the collection will be unavailable Monday, Nov. 10, while new carpeting is put down. Thank you for putting up with our mess for a day or two.

Saturday, Nov. 15, is International Games Day and the library will host a game day at the library from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Join us for a great day of games and a pizza lunch. This is a great opportunity for families to come and play together, learning a new game or sharing an old favorite.

The November documentary movie is “In Organic We Trust” and will be shown in the library meeting room on Monday, Nov. 24, at 6:30 p.m. “In Organic We Trust” is an eye-opening food documentary that looks beyond organic for practical solutions for me and you. Local farmer’s markets, school gardens, and urban farms are revolutionizing the way we eat. Change is happening from the soil up. The movie is about 80 minutes which we’ll follow with discussion and refreshments. Join us.

Be sure and stop by the library on Tuesdays and create. It is crafty Tuesday and each week we will put out the supplies to create a fun project in the junior room. Come create, check out a book or two and make the library a habit.

The library will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 27, with regular hours on both Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving.

The American Pediatric Association says the best life preparation is to read to your children from the day they are born. The library is ready to help with “Reading Ready” our program to reward young children every time they are read 250 books. Pick up a booklet today and read to your child.

PET OF THE WEEK

Hi, my name is “Bear.” I am a gentle boy who loves to go for walks. I am neutered and my vaccinations are up-to-date. When I am out on walks, I am told I don’t really pull much on the leash. I find it funny how my people friends have to stay connected to me through the leash — maybe they are afraid of getting lost? That would be strange though, consider we basically explore the same areas each day. If you take a look at the photo, you will see that I have a special collar, it is actually a child’s seatbelt. It fits me perfectly. I just love it! I like to talk, but I also am a good listener. I can’t wait to find my forever home. I will be patiently waiting for you to come and take me there. Sincerely, Bear
