CHALLENGE ACCEPTED

STAFF PHOTO BY EMILY GEDDE

With the help of Terry Mason, a student tapes Melissa Tate to the wall of the Falls Elementary gym Thursday. Students at Falls Elementary and West End Elementary schools participated in a month-long duct-tape challenge at both schools to see which class could earn the most Bronco Pride Shoes, or tickets, for good behavior. In total, students in preschool through sixth grade earned 13,367 tickets. Kristie LaVigne's kindergarten class came out on top earning 880, followed by Nicci Wood's fifth-grade class with 826 and Harmony Lennox's fourth graders with 747.
