Library still bustling with events

Whew! How did we get to the end of July already? It seems that summer just started. But Friday is Aug. 1 and that means only two more weeks of the adult and teen summer reading programs. All book slips must be in prize envelopes/boxes by Friday, Aug. 15.

Tomorrow, Thursday, July 31, at 10:30 a.m., we are showing the movie “The Black Cauldron” with popcorn included.

Tomorrow is also the very last day for kids to turn in hours read for a t-shirt. If your child has read 10 hours this summer then stop by the library or give us a call and talk to the junior room about ordering a shirt for your child.

The first week of August will bring Al Eizenveldt to the library to present “Imagination Workshop” on Tuesday, Aug. 5, at 1 p.m. Come explore your imagination, writing and more through prompts and exercises, for ages 6 and up. This is an excellent opportunity for any with creative kids to allow them to explore their creativity.

Chess club continues on Wednesday afternoons from 1:30 to 2:30. Enjoy the free lunch at Backus, play hard at open gym then come over to the library and work your brain hard.

Stories in the Park

continue Wednesday nights at 6 p.m. on the Eighth Avenue green space. Tonight, July 30, we'll have stories about large cats, Wednesday, Aug. 6, we'll read about elephants and we'll finish up summer storytime on Wednesday, Aug. 13, with stories about Australian animals. That night is also the third Active Streets night and we're looking at having a story walk.

Thursday, Aug. 7, at 12:30 p.m. is the summer reading picnic. This is your first chance to pick up summer reading t-shirts and we'll be serving hot dogs, sloppy joes, Kool-Aid, potato chips, pickles and ice cream. Join us for a fun afternoon.

Wednesday, Aug. 13, at 1 p.m., Z puppets will present “The Secret Life of Puppets” for ages 6 and up to explore the power of imagination through puppets. Thursday, Aug. 14, at 10:30 a.m. we'll show the movie “Dumbo” with popcorn of course.

The week of Aug. 18 will bring two musical concerts to the library. On Tuesday, Aug. 19, at 1 p.m., jazz guitarist Briand Morrison will play and share about the song writing process, stories behind the songs he writes and answer questions about making a living as a musician. This concert is for ages 12 and up. Encourage any musical teens in your life to attend.

Then on Thursday, Aug. 21, at 3 p.m., the Duluth Superior Symphony Orchestra duo of Nixon Bustos on bass and Melanie Sever on flute will present the music and culture of Latin America. The DSSO concerts have all been excellent and wonderful for all ages.

PET OF THE WEEK

Hello International Falls and Fort Frances! My given name is “Truly.” I am a beautiful girl who is still trying to figure out why I have dogs living underneath me — it's kinda strange. I moved here because the people I was staying with had other animals that I was unsure of, so they felt I spent too much time in the basement and they wanted me to be a lot happier, so the BHS was called and they took me in.

I have a lot better chance of finding the home and people of my dreams if I can meet more people, so here I am. I can't want to meet my forever person. I am patiently waiting for him or her to walk through the door. Until then, I can only dream. — Dreaming of you, Truly
