Vocaldente will perform at Backus Community Center at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 21.

German a cappella group scheduled to perform Nov. 21

Vocaldente is the second performance of this season's Border Concert Association series

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT

Vocaldente, an award-winning German a cappella quintet will take the stage of the Backus Community Center 7:30 p.m. Nov. 21 as the next show in the Border Concert Association series.

A release called the all-male quintet audience favorites, award winners, globetrotters, vocal artists and entertainers. It said the best way to describe Vocaldente is that unlike other a cappella groups, the artists don't rely on special effects like making rhythmic percussive sounds with their voices.

Their passion, the release continued, is conveying the feeling of musical entertainment through purely acoustic sound.

Coming together in 2004, Vocaldente has developed into an internationally acclaimed vocal ensemble. More than 100 concerts and appearances per year are on the program of the quintet that takes them through their homeland of Germany, beyond the border throughout Europe and on extensive and repeated tours of the U.S. as well as Hong Kong, Singapore, South Korea, Japan and Taiwan.

A sample program of Vocaldente's performance includes:

- Faith
- Everybody Love Somebody
- Let's Misbehave
- Comedian Harmonists medley
- The Wanderer
- Perfect
- Rosanna
- Don't Stop Me Now
- Walking on Broken Glass
- California Dreamin'
- Boy Group medley
- Easy
- A Thousand Miles
- When You Say Nothing At All
- I'm a Believer
- Michael Jackson medley
- You To Me Are Everything
