Summer reading is almost here

“Paws to Read!” That is the challenge for all of us this summer. Summer reading is almost here. We want everyone, the entire community to take time to stop and read this summer. Youth summer reading begins tomorrow, May 29, as that is the last day of school for the summer. We have summer reading bags for all children who stop into the library. Teen and adult summer reading begin Monday, June 2.

That is just the beginning of a summer of fun and exciting activities at the library. So come spend time exploring the passions in your life as we all ‘paws to read.’ Kids keep track of the amount of time they spend reading and/or being read to, including audiobooks. Prizes are given to any child who turns in five, 10, 15 and 25 hours read.

We encourage children to spend 15 minutes each day reading and 15 minutes being read to. Find a book that the whole family will enjoy and read together as a family. Teens and adults get a prize entry for each book they read with one drawing for all prizes held on Aug.18 (all entries must be turned in by Aug. 15).

Stories in the Park is moving! We will meet at the Eighth Avenue green space (near the community gardens). It will still be Wednesday evenings at 6 p.m.

beginning June 11 and running until Aug. 13. If the weather is unpleasant for sitting outside, come join us in the library.

Stories in the Park this summer will feature animals with paws (and a few without). Enjoy 30 to 40 minutes of stories, games and more each Wednesday evening. Stop by the community market on Wednesday evenings before coming to stories, then continue down the street to Smokey Bear Park for a 7 p.m. concert.

Tuesday is craft day at the library. Each Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. during the summer, we will put out the supplies to create a different craft each week. Expect lots of animal crafts this summer.

Friday, June 5, at 10:30 a.m. in the meeting room, the library will show the movie “The Jungle Book” with popcorn included.

We’ll have five other movies coming later in the summer, pick up a summer reading booklet for full details.

Community Education is hosting chess club at the library this summer beginning June 3. They will meet Tuesdays from 6 to 7 p.m. and Wednesdays from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. The cost is $2 per session and $20 punch cards may be purchased at the community education office. Anyone in third grade or above (including adults) is welcome. Come whenever you can, drop-ins welcome.

Reading is vital to doing well in school and life, and studies continue to show that if students don’t read over the summer they lose at least half a grade level in the three short summer months. Give your child a boost towards this fall, set aside regular time to read and let them see you reading as well.

PET OF THE WEEK

Hi, my name is “Henry.” People call me an angel because of the wings I have on my back. I am a larger boy who enjoys the company of people, other cats and I am OK with dogs. I am a simple boy — food, water, sunlight and a lap to snuggle in — that is all I need. If you can provide me with all of these things, I would love to meet you. — Sincerely, Henry

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest,
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain,
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.*

*He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*
