Paper Airplane Contest planned

Paper Airplane Contest tomorrow (Thursday, Oct. 24, at 6:30 p.m.) in the Backus Auditorium. Come one and all and create airplanes. We'll begin folding at 6:30 with the contest at 7:30.

This is the first year we are holding a paper airplane contest, and as such we are keeping the rules very simple. Planes eligible to be entered in the contest may be created using a standard copy paper sheet of 8.5x11 inch paper with no attachments. Children will need an adult accompaniment to be able to be in the balcony. Planes (and their builders) will compete for longest distance flown and for longest air time. Winners will be able to select a science kit. If you need additional information, please contact Diane at the library (283-8051).

The library owns all but one of the top five fiction and non-fiction titles on the New York Times Bestseller list. The top non-fiction include in alphabetical order David and Goliath by Malcolm Gladwell, Killing Jesus by Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard, One Summer by Bill Bryson and Si-Cology by Si Roberston with Mark Schlabach.

The top five fiction titles in alphabetical order are Doctor Sleep by Stephen King, Gone by James Patterson and Michael Ledwidge, The Longest Ride by Nicholas Sparks, Lowland by Jhumpa Lahira and Signature of

All Things by Elizabeth Gilbert.

Of course being bestsellers, the above titles aren't sitting on the shelf waiting for you to come in and check them out. Here are a few titles to keep you reading until you can get your hands on the hot titles.

A wild west story set in Virginia? Not exactly what you suspect but Joe Manning Lived Here by Ted Miller sure seems to fit the bill. Joe owns a ranch, was out plowing to plant a garden patch near the house when three guys come along and shoot him in the back, kill his wife and daughter, burn down the house and leave him for dead. Who done it, what will the sheriff do and will we figure it all out before more die?

Anne Tews Schwab is a new Minnesota author whose love of water developed before she could even walk. Capsized is a novel in verse that 'sails along beautifully' according to fellow Minnesota author Mary Logue.

With All My Love by internationally bestselling author Patricia Scanlan is a heartwarming tale about the changes a shocking discovery wrought in the lives of three generations of women. Set in the beautifully described Irish countryside with the complex and enduring bonds between mothers and daughters.

The Grim Company by Luke Scull is a dark fantasy set in a world in desperate need of heroes, but all it gets are a ragtag band of old warriors, a crippled halfmage, two orphans and an oddly capable manservant trying to stave off destruction.

Alabaster Falls concert on Saturday, Oct. 26, at the library at 11 a.m. Join us for a great concert, fun for the whole family.

PET OF THE WEEK

Hi, my name is "Glitch." I am a simple boy who is small in stature, but has a big heart. I love to hang around my people friends and I am getting acquainted with the many other cats here at the Holding Facility. We all have the same dream, the same hope — that one day we will find our forever homes. It is as simple as that. Food, water, a warm place to curl up at night (and during the day, since I, like every other cat, love to sleep 14-plus hours a day) and a loving family. These are the things I need and want in my life. Please consider adopting me, you and I will be forever grateful

MEMORIAMS

In remembrance of Hazel Grenier, who died Oct. 26, 2003.

*God looked around His garden,
And He found an empty place;
He then looked down on the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest;
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain;
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills harder to climb;
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

In loving memory of Jerome 'Jack' Schwartz

June 27, 1925-Oct. 25, 2010
*That morning,
God called your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide;
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same;
But as God calls us one by one;
The chain will link again.*

you so very much -
Much love from the family
