WOMEN’S BASKETBALL

Voyageurs lose MCAC opener at Hibbing

RRCC now at 6-7 overall, 0-1 in MCAC

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT

The Minnesota College Athletic Conference season began on a losing note

Wednesday night for the Rainy River Community College women’s basketball team.

The Voyageurs trailed by two at halftime and lost at Hibbing, 64-54.

“(The Cardinals) played with a lot more heart than we did,” said RRCC head coach Dieter Humbert, who took responsibility for the loss and also noted he didn’t get the team ready to play against an opponent the Voyageurs believed they were “very capable of beating.”

“I need to do a better job” of motivating the team, he said. “We have to play with a lot more passion.”

While Hibbing shot 20-47 (42.6 percent) from the field overall, compared to 21-56 (37.5 percent) for RRCC, the Cardinals scored more than a third of their points from the charity stripe, where they went 23-36 (63.9 percent), compared to 8-11 (72.7 percent) for the Voyageurs.

RRCC committed twice as many turnovers (24) as Hibbing (12).

The Cardinals only had five players available for the Wednesday’s game, in which four scored in double figures led by Courtney Wirtanen with 18 points, followed by Ashlyn Norman with 17, Taylor Martin with 13 and Christina Wickingson with 11.

Martin recorded a double-double by also hauling in 10 rebounds.

Two RRCC players recorded a double-double. Roneisha Jordan had 15 points and 11 rebounds, while Alisha Brinker added 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Humbert said the Voyageurs, who are presently without starting guard Ebony Joseph, need to have more player/ball movement on offense and play better defense along with getting more rebounds on both ends of the court.

The Voyageurs, who are now 0-1 in the MCAC North and 6-7 overall, return to action at 1 this afternoon when they host a conference game against Vermilion.
