BORDERLAND BRIEFS

COMMUNITY CANCER WALK

Community Cancer Walk organizers are interested in hearing from community members who would like to participate in a walk from 9 to 11 a.m. Oct. 5 at Bronco Arena. All funds raised will be distributed to local cancer patients to help with travel cost to and from treatment. Cost per participant is $5 and participants will receive a fleece scarf. Those interested may call Community Education at 283-2571, ext. 109, if interested in participating in this community wide event.

LIBRARY STORYTIME BEGINS

Storytime begins at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at International Falls Public Library. Families will be featured during the 20 to 30 minutes of stories, rhymes and song. Stories and activities are geared for children ages 3 to 4, but any child is welcome to attend with their caregiver. Playtime will follow storytime. The library has purchased a number of toys designed to help children begin developing science skills and learning to play in a group is another important skill to develop.

BRONCO FOOTBALL 100TH SEASON

The public is welcome to kick off the 100th season of Bronco football at the first home game set for Friday at Sports Stadium. A tailgate party will take place from 5 to 6:30 p.m. with grilled burgers, fried onions, chips and pop for $5. Commemorative hats and t-shirts will be available. First 50 kids sign up to toss a mini football to win an autographed team ball.

POLICE REPORT

Koochiching County Sheriff's Office

Gun shot: One of four people target practicing with a hand gun Sept. 1 on Grindstone Island fired a bullet which traveled through the woods and entered the wall of an occupied cabin. A glass vase on a shelf was struck by the bullet and destroyed.

Burglary: A cabin owned by Rhoda M. Sutherland, Paola, Kan., was apparently entered and two diamond rings and a necklace, valued at $36,200, taken. According to the Aug. 30 report, entry did not appear forced.

Theft: Shana R. Wright, County Road 32, Loman, reported Aug. 29 that a registered Quarter horse, valued at $10,500, was taken from a pasture.

OPP

Bear incident: Members of the Dryden Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police responded at about 11 p.m. Saturday to a report from a camp owner that a hunter had not returned. The camp owner found the man in a tree stand surrounded by three adult bears and four cubs. Officers were escorted to the site, where bears were being baited, and assisted in getting the man down from the tree without incident. No shots were fired and no injuries reported.
