

LOCALNEWS

Riders line up in front of Thunderbird Lodge to make single passes down the track or to race their friends in heads-up racing.

More than 50 riders gathered at Thunderbird Lodge to see who was fastest, with the proceeds from the event going to charity.

Two riders wait for the track to clear before they make their speed runs.

Riders make their way back to the lineup after their runs down the track.

Not every sled has an engine, as two kids play with a sled in the fresh snow.
