Firefighter/Engineer Clayton Bahr shows the students some of the equipment carried on the truck.

Schooled in prevention

Preschoolers at Falls Elementary School Wednesday got a chance to meet firefighters and see their equipment as a part of the International Falls Fire Department's annual fire prevention program. The week-long program drew some classes to the fire hall for the program, while firefighters brought the truck to the school for other students.

Falls Fire Chief Adam Mannausau talks with preschooler Teara Krall as she sat in the fire truck.

Anna Mortenson gets a hand getting off the big fire truck from her dad firefighter Ben Mortenson with Nolan Seegert and Ava Gilbertson following.

As firefighters finished Wednesday's program the preschoolers lined up to high-five them. Leah Boe high-fives with Firefighter/Engineer Clayton Bahr with Lila Hoopman behind her.
