

KEEPING IT ‘REEL’

A banner runs across Third Street, welcoming visitors to Borderland’s most unique bass fishing competition.

Two volunteers help in the kitchen at the Elk’s Spaghetti Dinner Wednesday, which kicked off the IFBC festivities.

Looming large over Smokey Bear Park is the main weigh-in tent, which went up Wednesday morning.

Rainy River Community College baseball coach Josh Koenig, left, affixes a sign to the baseball team’s food stand in Smokey Bear Park.

One visitor peruses the variety of knives available at one vendor on Third Street.

One-of-a-kind trinkets like these birdhouses are available from arts and crafts vendors lining Third Street.

Empty on Thursday afternoon, the leaderboard will soon be filled with the names of anglers hoping to end up on top.
